FREE Parking

at all commercial establishments within MCC limits including Malls and Private Hospitals

Mysuru, Nov. 27 (RK&KS)- The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) this morning made it mandatory for all commercial establishments in city to stop charging parking fee.

This decision was announced in a meeting chaired by H.S. Nandeesh Preetham, Chairman, MCC's Standing Committee on Town Planning at Old MCC Council Hall.

Addressing the meeting, Nandeesh Preetham said that hitherto commercial complexes were collecting exorbitant parking fees from customers forcing them to park their vehicles on the side of roads, which was hampering smooth flow of traffic.

He said that MCC Commissioner G. Jagadeesha, had on Nov. 20 issued an order making it mandatory for all commercial complexes and private hospitals in city to provide free parking with immediate effect.

When SOM asked if the new rules of providing free parking could be misused by public to park their vehicles at the Malls, Nandeesh Preetham said that it was upto the management of Malls and Private Hospitals to make sure only their customers and patients' caretakers park in that area and it was not the MCC's duty.

Referring to the Government itself collecting parking fee at Dasara Exhibition Grounds and at Mysore Palace, he said that both the places do not come under the purview of MCC and hence he had nothing to say in the matter.

Asked if the property tax for the basement would be waived off like in Bengaluru, Nandeesh said that the tax was waived off in Bengaluru based on BBMP Act but MCC is guided under Karnataka Municipal Corporation (KMC) Act which had no such provision unless an amendment is brought in by the State government.

Fee for road-digging

Nandeesh Preetham also suggested that MCC collect a fee of Rs. 1 lakh per year for every kilometer of the road dug by private telecom service providers to lay cables.

He said that a total of 3,600 kms length of roads have been utilised by the private telecom service providers and charging them a fee would bring a substantial revenue to the MCC.

Sammelana done, Clean up time

110 tonnes garbage cleared

Mysuru,Nov.27(MTY&NNN)- There was complete hush in the air today as the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya came to an end. But a different kind of activity was seen this morning with MCC workers wearing bright-coloured vests cleaning the venue. Over the three-day event, nearly 110 tonnes of waste was generated. Out of which 90 tonne was dry waste and the remaining 20 tonnes was wet waste.

Mysuru City Corporation Health Officer Dr. D.G. Nagaraju, speaking to Star of Mysore said that 100 pourakarmikas were working in two shifts every day to clear the waste.

Even as nearly four lakh delegates left the city, the pourakarmikas were busy trying to restore normalcy and make the city spick and span. "The use of plastic was completely banned and only plantain leaves and areca leaf plates were used to serve food. In spite of this strict ban, a few plastic covers of biscuits and chips packets were found," he said.

Apart from the event venue, there were 31 other places in city including that had to be cleaned as the delegates were housed in these places. Here too pourakarmikas have been busy at work.

4 days to pack up !

It will take nearly four days to completely dismantle the Mahamantapa in the Maharaja's College Grounds where German technology was used to put up the water-proof structures.

Beating the dead horse(s)

An idiom in Kannada conveys the simple message that you don't have cause for fear or bother in any situation as long as the going is good. A philosopher has simplified the phenomenon of fear as the fear of fear itself. The fear of an impending nuclear holocaust resulting in the decimation of all life forms on Planet Earth has been lingering in the minds of masses for some decades. Only microbes are believed to sustain themselves in their countless types and ability to dodge the high doses of radiation as well as heat, in the august company of the never-say-die cockroach, also in all their known types. Was it not the legendary Physicist Albert Einstein who remarked that the fourth (and virtually last) World War would be fought between stones and rubble left behind after the third one that witnesses the free play of weapons of mass destruction. All these points of debate have been raised in the circles of intelligentsia ad nauseam leaving the lay masses mulling the aforementioned idiom with no signs of bother or fear, overbusy adulterating, polluting, fouling up the water bodies, littering, suffering and continuing unfazed.

The most valuable asset, namely soil, hosting all the resources critical to sustaining the human populations, continues to be vandalised with no holds barred as if the asset doesn't belong to all without any privileges, such as possession of entry visa by individuals of different nationalities.

The realisation of the imperatives of extending life of human, animal and plant stock on earth a bit beyond foreseeable future may not have dawned on more than a minor fraction of even the literati. The extent and nature of the afflictions, relentlessly growing and causing both loss of valuable health and also death have clearly stumped the human populations all over the Planet. The impact of adulteration of food has long past lost its hurting edge to the point of making any talk of that uncivil practice to be treated as a joke. We have reached the point of either consuming any food adulterated or go starving. Thanks to human ingenuity and desire for increased material comfort and delight in life, aided by advances in technology, we nowadays have the menace of imitation foods such as plastic eggs, cashew-nut made of ground-nuts, synthetic milk and what have you.

In short, long before panic buttons are pressed, air pollution has crossed the killing point as being reported from National Capital Region of Delhi. One may choose to place confidence in human capability to overcome any crisis but wisdom lies in not putting that faculty to severe test by indulging in beating the horses galloping as corruption, pollution, adulteration and so on.

MATTERS OF FAITH: Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) chief Lalu Prasad has appointed an Astrologer, Shankar Charan Tripathi, as his party's National Spokesperson. He said the new National Spokesperson would also serve the purpose of "sorcery." The RJD chief is known to consult Astrologers and Godmen often. He had also reportedly changed the location of a swimming pool at his residence at the instance of an Astrologer. Such is his faith in matters of faith that he believes he would be able to defeat Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Bihar Chief Minister and his ally-turned-foe Nitish Kumar at the Centre and in the State respectively with the help of black magic. He declared as much at a recent meeting with his party colleagues. — In the Business Standard

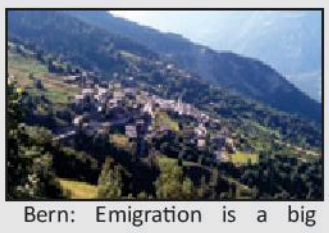
Medieval practice to find water source

London: Ten of the twelve water companies operating in the UK have recently admitted to using the medieval practice of water dowsing to locate pipes or underground water sources, despite the lack of any scientific evidence proving its effectiveness. Numerous studies have, in fact, discredited dowsing as pseudoscience after multiple experiments failed to demonstrate its efficacy.

The disclosure that the firms are still using the practice, and passing the cost on to their customers, has prompted calls for The Water Services Regulation Authority, or Ofwat, to intervene. Dowsers claim that their divining rods, two bent pieces of metal – typically copper or silver – cross over each other to make an X when they detect the presence of water below ground. Despite the claim being long discredited, some water companies insist that the practice is as effective as modern methods, such as drones or satellites.

It's golden chance to move to Albinen!



Bern: Emigration is a big problem nowadays, and even breathtakingly beautiful mountain villages in Switzerland are not immune to its bite. But that doesn't mean they are willing to give up without a fight. Just look at Albinen, where the local council will vote soon on proposals that could save it from extinction. Exactly how does a shrinking mountain village plan to ensure its survival? Well, the 240-member community in the canton of Valais is betting that the gift of 70,000 Swiss francs (about US$71,000) will lure outsiders into settling there. The amount above is what the village will pay to a family of four willing to move to Albinen. Adults stand to receive 25,000 francs and the allotment per child is 10,000 francs. For starters, don't rush to pack your bags and haul your family to this Alpine nook if you're over 45. (Sorry!). In addition, the newcomers must agree to stay put for at least 10 years plus buy a house or renovate an existing one in the village. The building must be minimum 200,000 francs and serve as a permanent residence. If you skip town before the designated deadline, you'll have to pay back every franc.

LAUGHTER THE BEST MEDICINE

Nasrudin took his tools to a repair shop one day. When he went to pick them up the following day, the repairman said, "Unfortunately, they were stolen." The next day he told his friend about this, the friend said, "I bet the repairman stole your tools. Go back there and demand that he return them." "I cannot do that," Nasrudin said. "I am avoiding him." "Why?" the friend asked. "Because I still owe him money for my tool repairs," replied Nasrudin!!

Keep a check on autos with expired documents

Sir,

Recently I found an auto jumping the signals and driving cutting across all the incoming vehicles at a busy junction, risking the lives of the motorists following the traffic rules.

This auto was not in a good condition and when I logged into a Central Government website to track the vehicles, I was shocked to note that the said auto had fitness certificate up to 1992 and insurance upto 1996 (insurance without fitness).

The Traffic Police and the RTO should embark on a special drive against such autos. I am sure that there will be many more such unfit autorickshaws on the city roads. These rickshaws violate all the basic rules and risk the lives of other motorists.

Save the lung space around Chikka Gadiyara

Sir,

The space around Dufferin Clock Tower, also called Chikka Gadiyara on the South of Devaraja Market, was developed a few years back into a nice social gathering place. It is a little lung space in that busy surrounding.

But, what has become of it nowadays? It is getting gradually converted into another place for street hawkers.

This must not happen. If needed, MCC authorities can put up barricades around the area. No vending, selling or hawking must be allowed there.

Curtains drawn on Sammelana

Mysuru, Nov.27 (RK&DM)- The three-day 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana in city drew to a close with much fanfare yesterday. Thousands of people attended various events of the 'Akshara Jathre,' as it is popularly of known, well beyond the schedule of the valedictory function.

Three resolutions were passes at the Sammelana — The first resolution is to thank the CM and the people of Mysuru for ensuring the success of the Sammelana, the second one is to get the withdrawn recognition for the courses of the Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) from the UGC and the third one is a plea to the State Government to implement the recommendations of the Kannada Development Authority (KDA).

The recommendations of the KDA include steps to strengthen Government Schools, implementation of the recommendations of the revised report of the Sarojini Mahishi Committee for according priority to Kannadigas in jobs and the recommendations for the encouragement of the use of Kannada language in social media.

The three-day Meet discussed pro-people Movements, neglected and marginalised committees, future challenges in the media, agrarian issues, Kannada research and e-Commication, etc. The Meet also featured a host of cultural programmes. While the main venue of the Sammelana was Maharaja's College Grounds, there were three other venues — Maharaja's College Centenary Hall, Kalamandira and Town Hall.

Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Manu Baligar claimed that the Sammelana was successful as it discussed a wide range of issues. "The Meet has discussed development of Kannada Research and social justice that has been recorded in Kannada history and e-Communication", he said.

The resolutions were read out by Dr. Manu Baligar in the presence of the Meet President Champa, Union Minister H.N. Ananth Kumar, District in-Charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, Sugar and Small Scale Industries Minister Dr. Geetha Mahadevaprasad, MP Pratap Simha, veteran Littérateur Dr. C.P. Krishna Kumar, Kannada Sahitya Parishat Chiefs of all the 30 districts and others personalities.

Senior Littérateur Dr. H.S. Venkatesh Murthy delivered the valedictory address.

Concern raised over attempts to snatch freedom of expression

Writers Prof. Kalegowda Nagawara, Dr. Veeranna Dande, Mallikarjun Yendigeri, former Kuvempu Bhasha Bharathi Chairman Pradhan Gurudutt, Dr.Vinaya Okkunda and others during a session on 'Current situation - The Challenges Before Plurality,' on the concluding day of the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds here yesterday.

Mysuru, Nov.27 (MTY&DM)- Expressing concern over what they claimed as rising intolerance and inequality in the country, most of the speakers at the 8th session on 'Current Situation - The Challenges Before Plurality' on the third and concluding day of the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds here yesterday, deplored such tendencies.

Addressing the session, former Kuvempu Bhasha Bharathi Chairman Pradhan Gurudutt said that India is a multi-cultural country and home to many religions and faiths. But it is regretful to note that religious fundamentalism is on the rise in the country, which is condemnable.

Pointing out that we have both love and hatred, he said that theism and atheism co-exist in our country. "Just as fundamentalism exists everywhere in the world, there are fundamentalist in Hindu religion too," he said, while expressing concern over rising intense fundamentalism across the globe.

Stating that the word 'Nationalism' has come to the forefront these days, he said that Russian President Vladimir Putin can be quoted as the best example for describing neo-nationalism.

Writer Prof. Kalegowda Nagawara, in his address, said that this was the most useful session where several issues bothering mankind were discussed.

Expressing concern over attempts to scuttle the freedom of expression, he said that although wealth can be stolen, the knowledge in a person can never be stolen. Recalling that the meet President Chandrashekhar Patil (Champa) landed in jail during Emergency for his outbursts against suppression of freedom, Kalegowda said that it was the duty of every responsible citizen that fundamental rights are protected.

Another writer Dr. Veeranna Dande, in his address, said that although it was common to find intolerance, frustration and disappointment among human beings, what is of concern today is the increasing domain of these trends globally.

Quoting Basavanna's famous Vachana 'Kalabeda, Kolabeda - Husiya Nudiyalu Beda - Anyarige Asahyapadabeda,' he said that it was important for everyone to take this Basavanna's Vachana seriously and practise it in the larger interests of humanity.

Dr. Vinaya Okkunda spoke on the topic 'The crisis in the freedom of expression.' Earlier, writer Mallikarjun Yendigeri welcomed. Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Manu Baligar, Meet President Champa and others were present.

Literary Fest is no political forum
for pseudo-secularism: Union Minister

H.N. Ananth Kumar

Mysuru, Nov.27 (SBD)- Under attack by writers, Union Minister and BJP leader H.N. Ananth Kumar hit back at them at the valedictory of the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds yesterday.

Noting that the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana is not the platform to discuss politics, preach bogus secularism and to propagate who should be voted to power, the Union Minister observed that the stage has been maligned by politics taking precedence.

Expressing displeasure over the Literary Meet turning out to be a platform for pseudo-secularism, Ananth Kumar decried the use of literary platform for promoting the political agenda of a few.

Alleging that the platform is being used to propagate pseudo-secularism, which is a shame, he said that the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana represents over six crore Kannadigas and is not the private property of any political party to push its agenda.

Observing that Kannada should not be used as a tool of political propaganda as Kannada is above all this, he said that one should be cautious during such Meets as Kannadigas in other States will be looking for the messages that would emerge from the same to strengthen the cause of Kannada.

Ananth Kumar also came down heavily on the organisers of the Meet for not extending an invitation to the Mysuru royal family, as they were instrumental in establishing Kannada Sahitya Parishat. "The Kannada Sahitya Parishat was established by the then Mysuru Maharaja Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar 103 years ago," he pointed out.

Kannada Sammelana Chief
lashes out at Ananth Kumar

Prof. Champa

Mysuru, Nov.27 (SBD)- Lashing out at Union Minister Ananth Kumar for his remarks against him at the valedictory of the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds here yesterday, the Meet President Prof. Chandrashekar Patil (Champa) has said that there was both 'Gangajal' and 'Gutter water' in the Union Minister's speech.

Speaking after Ananth Kumar's address at the valedictory, Prof. Champa deplored Ananth Kumar's mindset that everyone should agree to what he (Ananth Kumar) says.

Alleging that Ananth Kumar's speech was selective and lacked substance, he denounced the Union Minister's statement that he was the first to take oath in Kannada. "The truth is that it was J.H. Patel who first spoke in Kannada as an MP in Parliament," he said.

Reiterating that he need not pay heed to Ananth Kumar's remarks that had a mix of 'Gangajal' and 'Gutter water,' he chided MP Pratap Simha for following Ananth Kumar in leaving the dais.

He further said that Pratap Simha should have utilised the opportunity to speak his mind.

Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and Dr. Geetha Mahadevaprasad, MLC K.T. Srikantegowda, ZAK Chariperson Mallige Veeresh, Karnataka Vishwakarma Development Corporation Chairperson Nanda Kumar, former Minister B.T. Lalitha Nayak, DC D.Randeep, Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Manu Baligar, District President Dr. Y.D. Rajanna and others were present during the valedictory.

Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Manu Baligar in conversation with poet Dr. Jayanth Kaikini, during the Kavi Ghosti yesterday at the Maharaja's College Grounds. President Prof. Champa, poets Dr. Siddalinga Pattanashetty, Pratibha Nandakumar, K. Sharifa and others are also seen..

Mysuru, Nov.27 (RKB&NNN)- The Kavi Ghosti (Poets' Meet) held yesterday at the Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Mahamantapa in Maharaja's College Grounds as part of the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammlena saw a huge gathering as poet after poet mesmerised the audience with their poetry reading.

Some of the poems that caught the attention included Sammelana President Prof. Chandrashekar Patil's (Champa) daughter Meena Patil's poetry on her father titled 'Appa,' Chamarajanagar's Somashekar Bisilvadi's 'Aralimara,' Bagalkote's Malatesh Urs Arthikoti's 'Appa Mattu Nanu,' Mysuru's Gubbigudu Ramesh's 'Nanna Kavithe,' Dr. D.C. Rajappa's 'Datta Peetha Mattu Bhakta,' and Rajiya Balabatti's 'Naveega Prayoga Shishugalu,' all had the audience clapping in appreciation.

Rajiya Balabatti's 'Naveega Prayoga Shishugalu' poem looked like stinging the ruling party when it appealed to them to allow them to live as they were not animals to be experimented but were humans who were alive.

Poetry is something that is alive in all of us and this is the human face. The inspiration to pen a poem comes from observing the daily lives of people. What one cannot describe succinctly, it is possible to share it through poetry. A poet will lay bare small openings. Medicine and literature understands human pain and gives it treatment. We have become slaves to Facebook and WhatsApp. Let us try to come out of it and become aware and human.

—Dr. Jayanth Kaikini

There is no death for writing. There should be efforts to win over death while writing poetry. Poetry will enhance the poet's prestige and his respect. If a poet's mind is clean then his poetry will also be clean. Poets should taunt the mind but be free from prejudices.

—Dr. Siddalinga Patanashetty, Veteran Poet*

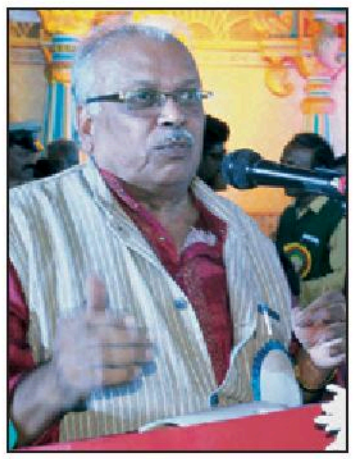
Bengaluru Joint Police Commissioner Dr. D.C. Rajappa's 'Datta Peetha Mattu Bhakta' poem was a message to Hindus and Muslims to follow a peaceful path.

Somashekar Bisilvadi's 'Aralimara' was thought-provoking where he pens the idea that you became the Buddha and made me Bodhi. Gubbigudu Ramesh's 'Nanna Kavithe' was haunting when he read that even though he had a voice he cannot sing, nor was there any heir nor petition and man is just like a skeleton.

In all, 28 poets including Dr. Chandrashekar Talya, Pratibha Nandakumar, K. Sharifa, Dr. Latha Gutti, Dr. Kamala Hemmige, Chand Basha, Dr. Somanna Mangaluru, Vijayakanta, Dr. Sujata Akki and Dr. Vasanthakumar Perla presented their poems.

Dr. Jayant Kaikini delivered the keynote address. Sammelana President Prof. Champa was present and Dr. Siddalinga Pattanashetty presided. However, there were one or two discordant notes as one could not make out when there was clapping that it was in appreciation or derision.

'Conflict between expectations and ground realities should be resolved amicably'



Dr. H.S. Venkatesh Murthy delivering valedictory address of the 83rd Kannada Sammelana in city yesterday.

Mysuru, Nov.27 (SBD&US)- "The conflict between expectations and ground realities which have emerged during the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana should be resolved amicably," opined writer Dr. H.S. Venkatesh Murthy.

He was delivering the valedictory address of the 83rd Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds here last evening.

Dr. Venkatesh Murthy said that many people voice support for Kannada heaping praises on its heritage and richness.

He pointed out that many people do not introspect themselves regarding the language of newspapers they subscribe or the schools where they have admitted their children, which would throw light on ground realities. Hence, he opined that the Sammelana should analyse such bitter truth about the treatment meted out to Kannada.

Going further, Venkatesh Murthy observed that the three-day Sammelana saw a lot of political statements.

He recalled that Sammelana President Prof. Champa had given a call to people to join hands to light a lamp and not to ignite, writer Dr. Baragur Ramachandrappa had sought a school syllabus for the State and Minister Ananth Kumar had opined that a joint struggle would evolve Kannada as medium of instruction.

However, Murthy labelled all such statements as political heeding to pressure of communities. He regretted that Sammelanas, meant to focus on literary problems, have been gradually transforming into a platform to discuss on political differences.

Speaking on the occasion, Minister for Rural Development H.K. Patil opined that Sahitya Sammelana should provide a strong guidance to Government.

He defended the statements of Sammelana President Prof. Champa who brings out truth, appreciation and criticism boldly which will not be appreciated by everyone. He suggested Kannada Sahitya Parishat to come out with books after detailed study of river rows and border disputes to enlighten the people.

LOOKING BACK...

On Grandparents and Children...

By D. Lalitha Rao

A few weeks ago I had written about how we were waiting for a certain happy event, now it's in the next stage. It has finally happened after months of anticipation. We have become grandparents to a fine baby boy and he is all of two-months-old as of now.

He is in San Francisco, thousands of miles away from us, but thanks to technology distances don't matter. His daddy sends us videos or puts on his phone camera and we are able to see him yelling, moving his arms and legs and generally being as infantish as he is meant to be.

What is it about babies that is so enchanting and captivating? It's their newness, their innocence their toothless old man gums and their star-like hands and feet. It's the fact that God creates such perfection in such a small body.

Being a grandparent is a unique feeling. All the tenderness, all the love, all the anxiety for the little one's good health is there, plus the reassurance that his parents are there to take care of him 24/7.

September 10th was National Grandparents Day in the US and internationally in other countries. What a wonderful way to celebrate grandparents all over the world, the love and special caring that they bring to their grandchildren. I know that I feel very privileged to be an ajji and even though it may be months before I get to see our grandson, the time we spend watching his videos and cooing over his photos is well worth every minute.

His grandpa gets agitated if there are any pictures of the young one crying but my logic is, he has been blessed with a lusty pair of lungs, let him by all means use them to their full extent!

Grandparents fulfill an important need in a child's life. As families grow smaller and distances between families increase, visiting grandparents and spending time with them is extremely important for the child to connect with his or her extended family.

Sadly, this also makes me think about the unlucky kids who live lives of misery for some reason or the other. When I read about the rape and assault of little five-year-old children, the horror is that such vile criminals and perverts exist in our society. Those who are supposed to be care-givers turn out to be the perpetrators of evil themselves. Rape is a heinous crime, on top of that the victims are innocent children whose only fault is that they live in the midst of violence and perversion. Unfortunately, the lives of children who are in the care of orphanages and remand homes are often a living hell with sexual abuse rampant, often carried out by the administrators themselves.

How do we protect our children, make sure that their childhood is not fractured, their innocence forever lost? Often the abuse is carried out by a person close to the child, a relative who the child trusts. Often the perpetrator is a friendly neighbour with evil in his heart and mind. This is a perpetual problem of our society and we must be vigilant at all times.

What can we do to ensure that the children of our society have unimpaired physical and mental health? Although institutions exist all over the world to take care of those traumatised by war for example, or those orphaned in disasters, they are far from adequate.

I read a very touching true story recently by Saroo Brierley called A Long Way Home. Saroo Brierley was born Sheru Munshi Khan in Ganesh Talai, a suburb within Khandwa, Madhya Pradesh. When he was young, his father left his mother, throwing the family into poverty. His mother worked in construction to support herself and her children but often did not make enough money to feed them all, and could not afford to send them to school. One day Saroo accompanied his older brother Guddu to the station where Guddu cleaned Railway carriages and begged for money. Little Saroo while waiting for his brother to return got impatient and boarded a train thinking Guddu was on it. He found there were no doors to the adjoining carriages. Hoping his brother would come for him, he fell asleep. When he awoke, the train was travelling across unfamiliar country. Occasionally the train stopped at small stations, but Saroo was unable to open the door to escape. Saroo's rail journey eventually ended at the huge Howrah Railway Station in Kolkata.

After that what happened to Saroo is amazing and frightening. He survived and was eventually adopted from an orphanage by an Australian couple. When you read Saroo's story, later filmed as Lion with Dev Patel starring as the main character, you feel a great sense of thankfulness that Saroo was not abused even though he came dangerously close to it sometimes. His life after he was adopted by the Brierleys in Australia, was incredible good fortune and he was able to grow up as normally as possible. He searched for his mother after he grew up, and through Google he was able to locate his home town, and eventually travelled to India and met his family. It is an amazing story and I would recommend that everyone read it.

A treat for over 6 lakh taste-buds at Kannada Sammelana

Food being served in an orderly manner to the participants at the 83rd Kannada Sahitya Sammelana which concluded in city yesterday.

Mysuru, Nov. 27 (KS) - The three-day 83rd Kannada Sahitya Sammelana, which concluded yesterday at Maharaja's College Grounds here saw about six lakh people consuming various delicacies for breakfast, lunch and dinner at three venues — Maharaja's College Grounds, Scouts and Guides Grounds and Ursu Boarding School.

Tasty food was served in an orderly manner at all the three locations and there were effective waste management systems. The serving of food (breakfast, lunch and dinner) began as early as 5 am and went on till about 11 pm as there was a huge crowd.

On the three days, the Food Committee, which had the responsibility of serving quality and tasty food, served breakfast, lunch and dinner, which included sweet and khara pongal, poori-saagu, methi rice-bath, rice-sambar, curd-rice, pomegranate curd-rice, papad, pickles, kajjaya, vegetable biriyani, rice-rasam, rice payasa, jowar roti, akki roti, brinjal yennegai, kalle-huli, aloo bonda, menasinakai bajji etc., which received appreciation from the participants and guests at the Kannada Sammelana who had come from across the State.

Though there were some issues over serving of food on the first day, the Food Committee rectified the same and serving of food on the second and third day went on smoothly without any glitch.

Senior Food and Civil Supplies Deputy Director Dr. K. Rameshwarappa, who was in charge of food arrangements at the Sammelana said that nearly six lakh literary buffs and other participants savoured the variety of dishes prepared for them at the temporary kitchen set up in the Grounds. We had prepared the dishes as per the menu, Dr. K. Rameshwarappa said and expressed happiness that more people had arrived for the lit fest than what they had expected.

The boarding facility was availed by more than 10,000 participants, he said.

'Doctors can serve in any part of the State if they know Kannada'

Docs urged to speak in Kannada with patients

Mysuru, Nov. 27 (KS) - "Doctors can serve in any part of the State without facing any difficulties if they know Kannada," said Cardiologist Dr. Vijayalakshmi Balekundri.

She was speaking at a session on 'Vijnana Tantrajnana: Kannadada Balake,' organised as part of Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Centenary Hall on the concluding day of the Sammelana yesterday.

She said that doctors should communicate with patients in Kannada and added that the prescriptions and letter of consent should be in Kannada so that those who do not know English can understand the medical condition.

She also said that in most cases, though the doctors know Kannada, they prefer to speak in English with patients, which may lead to miscommunication as most patients may not know or understand English.

'Yakshagana deserves due recognition as prominent art of State'

Mysuru, Nov.27(US&YDS)- 'Yakshagana deserves the honour of prominent and representative art of the State,' opined writer Dr. Kabinale Vasanth Bharadwaj.

Dr. Vasanth Bharadwaj

He was speaking on Yakshagana at a seminar organised as part of 83rd Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Kalamandira here yesterday.

Bharadwaj said that the struggle seeking due recognition for Yakshagana was going on for years and appealed Chief Minister Siddharamaiah to take a decision in the Cabinet and establish a separate Academy for Yakshagana and Bayalata. He pointed out that the Government was presenting over 25 awards in various sectors sidelining Yakshagana as a coastal art.

He averred that Yakshagana was not just confined to the coastal belt but belongs to the entire State with contributions from over 1,200 poets with Yakshagana artistes par excellence.

Speaking on theatre, critic Dr. N. Damodar Shetty opined that theatre was a true art and hence sought more theatre study centres in the State. He appealed the government to make theatre a part of school curriculum.

Writers Dr. M.S. Murthy, Dr. G.S. Bhusagonda, Dr. R.N. Srilatha, Ramya Nagaraj, Lakshamma and others participated in the seminar.

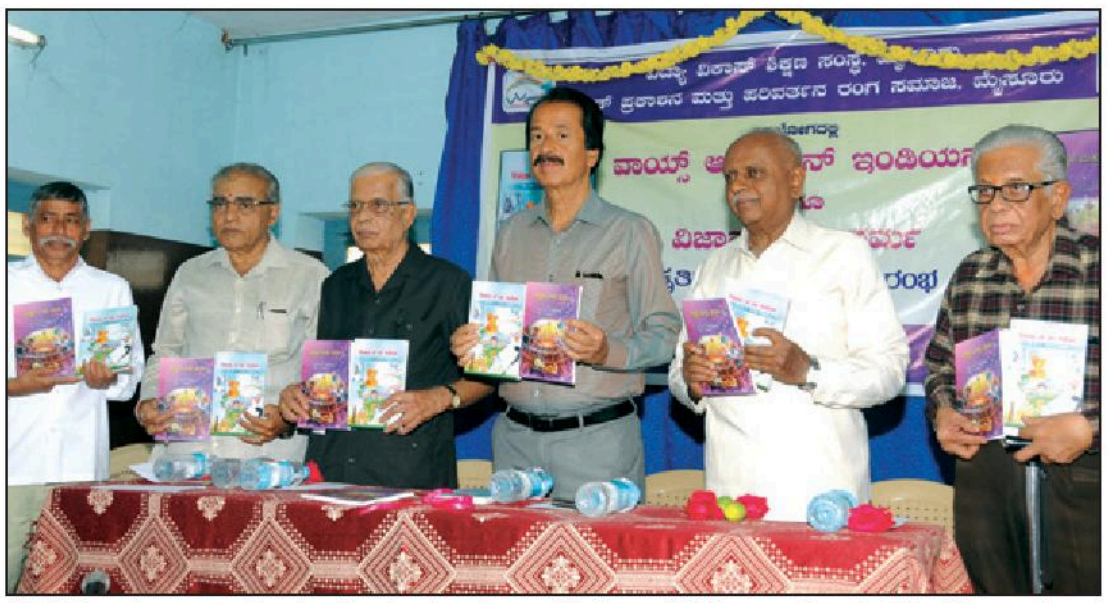
MLA Vasu releases books



MLA Vasu is seen releasing the books along with (from left) former Deputy Tahsildar and poet C.E. Gnanesh Kumar, social worker K. Raghuram, BVB Mysuru Chairman Prof. A.V. Narasimha Murthy, former Kuvempu University VC Prof. P. Venkataramaiah and author Dr. M.C. Subbaramu at a function held at Sri Rama Mandir in Krishnamuthypuram this morning.

Mysuru, Nov. 27 (RKB&DM) - Chamaraja MLA Vasu released two books — 'Voices of an Indian' and 'Vignana Mathu Dharma' — at a programme jointly organised by Vidya Vikas Educational Trust, Likhith Prakashana and Parivartana Ranga Samaja, at Sri Rama Mandira in Krishnamurthypuram, here this morning.

While 'Voices of an Indian' is an English work authored by Dr. M.C. Subbaramu, Ex-SOG, BARC, Mumbai, 'Vignana Mathu Dharma' (Science and Religion) is a Kannada work authored by Dr. C. Ningappa of the Department of Physics, VVIET, Mysuru.

Prof. A.V. Narasimha Murthy, Chairman, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan (BVB), Mysuru, speaking on the book 'Voices of an Indian,' said that the book explains how in the present day, caste, creed and religion has gained importance over humanity.

Pointing out that the book delves on Shankaracharya's 'Advaitha philosophy,' he called upon the younger generation to develop a scientific temper.

Stating that there exists a connection between caste, society and politics, he said that this should not happen.

The book also wonderfully analyses the relationship between animals and human beings, he said.

Pointing out that it was Dr. Subbaramu, who was instrumental in celebrating Feb.28 as Science Day in the country, Prof. Narasimha Murthy said that the then Union government in 1986 had ordered celebration of Science Day based on a letter written by Dr. Subbaramu, now a resident of Mysuru.

Former Kuvempu University Vice-Chancellor Prof. P. Venkataramaiah, who spoke on the book 'Vignana Mathu Dharma' said that the work contains informative articles on modern science and religion.

He further said that the book underlines the point that the country's strength lies in harmony and unity.

Former Deputy Tahsildar and poet C.E. Gnanesh Kumar, social worker K. Raghuram, authors Dr. M.C. Subbaramu and Dr. C. Ningappa, Likhith Prakashana's K.C. Omkarappa and others were present on the occasion.

Cranes have been brought in to move the tents. It is expected that it will take over a day to dismantle and move hundreds of light fittings, fans and carpets.

This Sammelana was held after a gap of 27 years in the city. It is also interesting to note that it was being held in Mysuru exactly 100 years as the first one in Mysuru held in 1917 when the then Vice-Chancellor of University of Mysore H.V. Nanjundayya was the President of the Sammelana. It also hosted the first Vishwa Kannada Sammelana in 1986.

For four days, Mysuru was agog with different dialects of Kannada renting the air as nearly four lakh people from different parts of the State and country participated in the Sammelana. Delegates wearing red and yellow shawls, holding Kannada flags and singing Kannada songs, was a common sight.

Looking back

The main stage, Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar mahamantapa was where most of the action was with the inauguration and the seminars being held there. Right next to it was the book pavilion, which was choc-o-block with bibliophiles on all the three days.

The dining area on the hockey grounds for VIPs, the food stalls in Scouts and Guides Grounds opposite to the DC office where mouth watering dishes were served all added to the festive atmosphere that a Sammelana is always known for.

The other three stages like the Maharaja's College Centenary Hall and Kalamandira was also a beehive of activity as litterateurs, poets and scholars put forth their ideas and argued about all the subjects related to life, politics and literature.

Amicable settlement to land dispute at Bettageri in Kodagu

193 acres of land in Chowrira family possession handed over to Kannada Mutt

Bettadapura Kannada Mutt Seer Sri Chennabasava Deshikendra Swamiji signing on the documents related to the land measuring 193 acres at Bettageri in Kodagu, which was handed over to the Mutt on Saturday.

Gonikoppal, Nov.27- The long-standing dispute between Chowrira family and a Bettadapura Kannada Mutt over a land measuring 193 acres at Bettageri in Kodagu was amicably settled on Saturday with the Mutt head Sri Chennabasava Deshikendra Swamiji taking possession of land records. The documents were signed and handed over to the Seer along with land acquisition mahazar documents.

The documents were handed over at Bettageri farm house and five witnesses from the village too signed the documents as witnesses to complete the land handing over process.

However, none of the Chowrira family members were present at the farm house that was asked to be vacated by Karnataka High Court.

The Police had enforced Section 144 at Bettageri up to two kilometre radius of the farm house and had also deployed three District Armed Reserve platoons to prevent any untoward incidents. Chowrira family members had vacated the place facilitating the smooth handing over of the land to the Bettadapura Mutt.

The land records were taken into possession by Virajpet Tahsildar Mahadevaswamy at around 7 am and a Revenue officers' team led by him began the mahazar and survey of the land amidst tight Police security provided by Madikeri Dy.SP Sundar Raj.

Sri Chennabasava Deshikendra Swamiji visited the Gaddige that was established by the Kannada Mutt two centuries ago to protect the Mutt properties. The Seer performed pujas to the Gaddige.

History: In 1809, Veerarajendra Wadiyar granted 197 acres of land at Bettageri to the Kannada Mutt established by Sri Rudradeshika Swamiji of Kashi Mutt as an Inam (Inam is a tenure). The Mutt was being governed by Chennaveera Deshikendra Swamiji from 1954 to 1967. In 1967, the Seer, keeping four acres for the Mutt, leased the remaining 193 acres to Chowrira Muthappa and Kalappa for a sum of Rs. 40,000 and accordingly, had prepared the lease agreement for 99 years.

The Chowrira family had developed coffee plantations since then. The land was transferred to their names by the family members who removed the Kannada Mutt's name in the ownership column of the records and had included the names of 12 members of the family. They had prepared land records for the same and had shared the property among the 12 members.

When the Karnataka Land Reforms Act (Certain Inam Abolition) came into force in 1972, all the Inam lands came into the possession of the Government, depriving both the lessor and the lessee the ownership of lands that were granted as Inam by the erstwhile rulers. This rule applied to all Inam lands that were leased out for 99 years.

After the Act came into force, the Kannada Mutt legally re-transferred the land from the Government to its possession as per the provisions of the Act and by paying Rs. 19,961 to the Government. The Virajpet Land Tribunal passed an order to this effect and in 1993 the Supreme Court implemented the order. Accordingly, in 1993, Madikeri Assistant Commissioner, who is the President of the Virajpet Land Tribunal, passed an order to issue title deeds for 197 acres of land to the Bettadapura Kannada Mutt.

Accordingly, an RTC was issued to the Mutt Seer in 2000 and the land was registered under the Swamiji's name and the Bettadapura Mutt acted on taking over the land that was legally granted to it.

But trouble started when Chowrira family members C.P. Kaveramma, C.P. Kalappa, C.P. Shaila, C.P. Jayasheela, C.P. Rohini, Hemavathy Nachappa, C.P. Chinnappa, C.M. Uthappa, Janaki, and C.M. Dechamma approached the High Court in 2013 against the issuance of the RTC. They had claimed ownership of the land. However, the petition filed by the family members was disposed of by the Court.

The Mutt alleged that the lessees had cut and sold trees, converted the Inam lands into "sagu" by changing the "Jamabandi" (land records) to claim it as their own.

The family members later approached the Supreme Court and filed a review petition, making the Virajpet Tahsildar as a respondent. This too was dismissed by the Supreme Court in 2015. The present Bettadapura Mutt Seer Sri Chennabasava Deshikendra Swamiji approached the High Court this year seeking a directive to the Government to vacate the lessees.

Hearing his petition, the High Court ordered the Virajpet Tahsildar to look into the issue and take appropriate steps.

Following the High Court directive and Supreme Court observations, Tahsildar Mahadevaswamy had issued a notice to the Chowrira family members to vacate the property within a month. Accordingly, the land was handed over to the Kannada Mutt.

'Media joining hands with capitalists, spoiling health of society'

Professor Dr. Vinaya Okkunda expresses concern

Mysuru, Nov.27 (MTY&NNN)- Today's Media is joining hands with capitalists and disturbing the health of the society. The way language is used flippantly is also a cause for concern, regretted Professor Dr. Vinaya Okkunda.

She was speaking at the seminar on "Contemporary Circumstances: Many Challenges" at the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at the Maharaja's College Grounds yesterday on the topic 'Predicament of Freedom of Expression' and said that the use of language is being corrupted.

The use of inappropriate words is very galling and stymieing the growth of Kannada language. Added to this is the way media is in the control of capitalists. This has resulted in the news that should be published, aired or broadcast not reaching the public. Hence, the political parties today are feeling that if they can have media in their grip they can win elections, she alleged.

Give up selfie craze: Today's youth are bowled over by craze for taking selfies. Since they are immersed in the world of selfies, they are not able to observe the outside world. Hence, the youth should try to come out of this fascination for selfies. Only then can they see the world around them, she said.

Do not hesitate to speak: When the time comes to talk we should not shy away from speaking. If a situation arises where we have to oppose, we must oppose. Otherwise, the day is not too far off when the writers will be caught in a tight corner, said Dr. Okkunda expressing her anguish.

Threat to freedom of expression: We are living at a time where there is threat to freedom of expression. For instance on Nov.5 in Tamil Nadu, a man who was in debt tried to commit suicide along with his family members in front of the District Collector's Office. One of his children died because of this incidence. However, the Government there did not announce any compensation. A cartoonist depicted the irony of this situation pointing out the insensitivity of the Government through his cartoon.

The TN Government by arresting the cartoonist snatched his right to freedom of expression, she alleged.

Moral Policing: In the name of hurting religious and cultural feelings, the fringe elements are issuing threats to artists. The country is facing this dangerous trend today.

Even before the release of film 'Padmavathi,' the fringe elements comparing actress Deepika Padukone to Shoorpanaki (a character in Ramayana) have threatened to chop of her nose if the film is released and they have also announced a bounty of Rs.10 crore on the Director of the movie Sanjay Leela Bhansali, she said.

This kind of moral policing is causing a fissure in the society, which is a dangerous trend. The fundamentalists are in no frame of mind to accept anything other than their thinking. When actor Kamal Haasan said that there are terrorists among the Hindus also, he has been consistently threatened, she said.

This is not just an attack on the film stars but it is also atrocities committed on the society and a conspiracy is going on to mislead the people.

In the coming days, the communal forces will not hesitate to start dictating what one should and should not write, said Dr. Okkunda expressing her displeasure.

Dissolving negative Chi

The Wu Lou (bottle gourd) originates from a vegetable. When dried, it is very durable and its shape renders it useful as a receptacle for medicine. Most often the Wu Lou is carried by aged people as a charm of longevity and a charm to dissipate or ward off pernicious influences. The Wu Lou is one of the most significant tools to cure many bad situations and enhance our Feng Shui.

A normal concern in any home is to keep the family free of negative influences, bad luck and ill health. Over a period of time the house normally gathers unpleasant energy which could be due to lifestyle, accumulation of clutter and even sourcing artifacts and furniture which are not very harmonious.

There are many methods which one can adapt to counter negative energies and protect the home and the family. However in the science of Feng Shui the solutions are quite simple and can be adapted in our daily lives.

By using some simple techniques of Feng Shui one can deflect, dissolve and disperse bad luck. Usually a key aspect to this is to identifying such bad energies and countering them well in time.

One simple approach could be good house-keeping and protecting the home from the change of energies annually which in Feng Shui parlance is referred to as "annual corrections" or "spring cleaning."

This is to ensure that at the beginning of the year or anytime throughout the year if you are experiencing unpleasant situations, obstacles or illness, you could find a good remedy to dissolve such energies and check the Feng Shui of your space.

This ensures good protection and makes you stay ahead of these negative energies which have the power to create problems in one's life. At times such energies push back your plans and create insurmountable issues which would push the person back by few years in terms of his prospects and life goals.

Some of the simple yet practical remedies in Feng Shui are the use of sea salt and special protective symbols known as Wu Lou.

The Wu Lou (bottle gourd) originates from a vegetable. When dried, it is very durable and its shape renders it useful as a receptacle for medicine. Most often the Wu Lou is carried by aged people as a charm of longevity and a charm to dissipate or ward off pernicious influences. The Wu Lou is one of the most significant tools to cure many bad situations and enhance our Feng Shui. It is the powerful symbol of health and longevity.

The other simple remedy is the use of sea salt. The sea salt is commonly used in Feng Shui to get rid of negative energy and to allow a balanced chi to flow inside the home. The sea salt is either used alone or mixed with water and placed in certain areas of the home to counter annual afflictions. One popular method of cleansing the home to get rid of negative energy is to mix 5 to 6 tablespoons of sea salt in a bucket of water and mop the floors with the mixture.

However, if the house is feeling depleted and choked, it's an indication of accumulated bad energies which can be dissolved. Place a pot or jug filled with sea salt in every room and remove it after 24 hours. Sea salt can also be spread around the 'outside perimeter' of the house to put a stop to any negative energy entering the home.

Bengaluru FC scores over Delhi Dynamos

Bengaluru, Nov.27- Bengaluru FC scored a facile 4-1 win over Delhi Dynamos in their ISL league encounter played at the Sree Kanteerava stadium premises here yesterday.

Erik Partaalu struck twice (24th and 45th minute) while Lenny Rodriguez (57th) and Miku (87th) piled on the misery. Kalu Uche scored from the penalty spot in the 86th minute to pull one back for the Dynamos after a contentious penalty went their way.

With this win, Bengaluru climbed to the top of the league table with six points from two matches. Partaalu nodded home for his first goal after he received the header from Harmanjot Khabra on Edu Garcia's free-kick on the right. He scored his second goal as he headed the ball past Albino Gomes on Edu Garcia's corner-kick.

Lenny Rodriguez registered the third goal on a rebound from Albino Gomes' hands as he tried to clear Udanta Singh's shot in 57th minute. Before Lenny could score the goal though, Sunil Chhetri did well to find Udanta, who controlled the ball well before sending in the cross on the left.

Nicolas Ladislao Fedor Flores (Miku) finally opened his account too as he got the fourth goal for the home side in 87th minute when his shot whizzed past Albino's reach.

The Dynamos were awarded a penalty, from which Uche scored, after John Johnson was pulled up for a handling the ball inside the box when trying to clear Seitysen Singh's cross.

The home side missed a scoring chance in the 39th minute as goalkeeper Ibino Gomes saved a left-footed shot of Garcia off skipper Chhetri's pass.

Bengaluru wasted yet another chance in the 77th minute after Albino did well to dive to his left and punched the shot taken by Miku after Delhi lost possession of the ball. Both the coaches fielded the same teams which had beaten their respective rivals in their last encounters.

Dynamos had only one real chance in the match as Kalu Uche's header whizzed off-target off a Guyon Luis Fenandez cross inside Bengaluru's box in the 37th minute. Before having a go at the home side goal, Uche received a pass from Claudio Matias Mirajbe Correa.

In the ninth minute, Paulinho Dias' right-footed shot from right flank was punched away to safety by Bengaluru goalkeeper Gurpreet Singh Sandhu.

Marcelinho stars as Pune rout ATK 4-1

Kolkata: In the earlier match, Marcelo Pereira spoilt ATK's first home match of the season as the Brazilian led FC Pune City's 4-1 rout of the two-time defending champions in their Indian Super League football fixture at the Salt Lake Stadium, here yesterday.

Last season's Golden Boot winner Marcelinho once again proved why he was the biggest threat as he struck a double (13th and 60th minutes) and also assisted two other goals in a fine display of wing play to bury ATK in front of their home fans.

The match was in balance with Pune leading by a slender one-goal margin at halftime, and ATK's Bipin Singh produced a stunning 50th minute freekick after the changeover much to the joy of the anxious home fans.

But that remained the solitary moment of joy for the most successful ISL franchise as Rohit Kumar scored off a flying header from a Marcelinho freekick within a minute before Emiliano Alfaro completed the rout in the 81st minute with the Brazilian once again playing the assist.

FC Pune City, who lost 2-3 to Delhi Dynamos at home in their ISL opener, thus opened their account in style while it was misery for ATK as they remained on one point that came off a goalless draw against Kerala Blasters in Kochi.

Pune got off to a dream start capitalising on an awful defensive lapse by Tom Thorpe who misjudged the flight of a long ball allowing Emiliano Alfaro to sneak into the box from left.

The forward squared it off to an unmarked Marcelinho who slotted it past the left of Majumder with a precision finish as the ATK goalkeeper had no chance. A stunning freekick from ATK forward Bipin Singh cancelled the lead five minutes after the changeover but the home team's joy was shortlived as Pune regained the lead in one minute.

Wasting no time, Pune bounced back through Rohit Kumar who used Marcelo's corner to perfection to bury a powerful header past the ATK goalkeeper. ATK wasted a fine chance in the 24th minute when their Portuguese midfielder Zequinha broke through the heart of midfield with a charging solo run and blasted a shot away on goal from outside the box.

But Kamaljit Singh thwarted the brilliant effort and Hitesh Sharma also failed to score from the rebound with Baljit Sahni making an alert tackle to avoid any danger. The Pune goalkeeper once again stood out in the 66th minute to thwart an attempt from Robin Singh.

Government for liquor ban in State: Minister Thimmapur

Mysuru, Nov.27 (SPN&DM) Maintaining that the Government was in favour of banning liquor in the State, Excise Minister R.B. Thimmapur has said that however, a decision cannot be taken in this regard instantly.

Thimmapur

Speaking to press persons after holding a meeting with Excise Officers from Mysuru division districts at the Government Guest House in Nazarbad here on Saturday, Thimmapur said that a decision on liquor ban will be taken only after conducting a through study is States such as Gujarat, Kerala and Bihar, where liquor ban is in place.

He further said that a final decision will be taken only after conducting widespread public awareness campaigns and sensitisation programmes on banning liquor.

Continuing, the Minister said that the Mysuru division comprising of five districts, stands second in Excise revenue generation in the State.

The Department has set a target of Rs. 18,050 crore Excise revenue collection by the end of March next year, he added.

Explaining measures taken by the Department for curbing illicit liquor and arrack, the Minister claimed that selling of illicit liquor, hooch and arrack has completely come to an end in the five districts of Mysuru division.

First-Aid training imparted to industrial workers

Participants at the First-Aid Training programme for industrial workers organised in city recently.

Mysuru, Nov.27- "Industries should focus on safety and health of the workers," said H. Suresh, Assistant Director of Factories, Industrial Safety and Health, Mysuru Division.

He was speaking at the 55th one-day training programme organised by Nanjangud Industries Association (NIA) and the Department of Factories and Boilers, Industrial Safety and Health, here recently.

He appreciated the efforts of NIA in propagating the knowledge on first-aid at workplace for workers and supervisors working in industries and commercial establishments, so that they are able to mitigate the incident and provide basic first-aid to the injured employee.

He lamented that 98 percent of the industrial accidents occur due to the negligence of those working on the machinery and in some cases, proper equipment, supervision, basic training is not imparted to the people on the job.

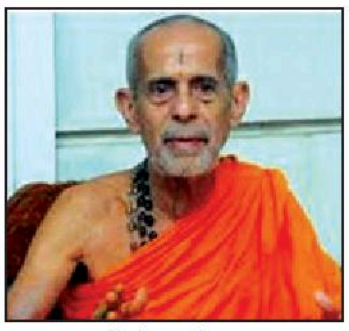
He also called on the Industries to train more than 20 percent of the employees and include contract labour in first-aid training.

Various industries and establishments based in Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts deputed over 80 workers and supervisors for the one-day programme.

Dr. B. Prakash, an expert in first-aid from St. John's Ambulance Association, conducted the programme through lecture, discussions, demonstration and case studies.

NIA President M.S. Ramaprasad welcomed. NIA Manager G Ravindran proposed a vote of thanks. NIA Secretary B.S. Chandrashekar, Advisor to Industries Association Ravichandra Bekal and Medical Expert Dr. B. Prakash were present during the occasion.

Pejawar Seer will have to vacate Mutt on supporting Dr. Ambedkar's Constitution: Prof. Champa



Pejawar Seer

83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana President Prof. Chandrashekar Patil (Champa) interacting with the literary buffs at the Sammelana venue yesterday.

Mysuru, Nov.27- Pejawar Seer will be asked to vacate the Mutt if he agrees with the Constitution written by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, said writer Prof. Chandrashekar Patil (Champa) here yesterday.

He was speaking during the interaction programme with Sammelana President organised as a part of the Kannada Sahitya Sammelana at Maharaja's College Grounds in city.

Reacting to a question posed by Ramesh Hirejumbora on Pejawar Seer's disagreement with Dr. Ambedkar's Constitution, Champa said that Pejawar Seer has been an undisputed personality for the past 40-50 years and a part of 5,000 year history and tradition and if he does not follow his religion, the devotees will ask him to leave the Mutt.

"Let us not discuss the matter further and waste our energy. We are interested only in our Constitution and its principles," he added.

When asked as to why he had batted for the secular parties during his Presidential address, Prof. Champa posed a reverse question asking whether the event organised to discuss only literature adding then why were sessions being organised on science and technology, education and other subjects.

Answering to one of Rajashekar Kadamba's questions, Champa said he would soon release his three plays which have been written keeping in mind the developments in the modern world.

Reacting to a question on delay in implementation of Sarojini Mahishi Report, he said that though it was mentioned to provide education in Kannada language during the Gokak Movement it has not been implemented completely. With respect to Sarojini Mahishi Report, Champa mentioned that the matter had been brought to the notice of CM Siddharamaiah. On digitalisation of books, Champa said that at time when book reading is decreasing, the best option to make children read books is through digitalisation books.

Minister for Rural Development and Panchayat Raj H.K. Patil, Kannada Sahitya Sammelana President Dr. Manu Baligar, Kannada and Culture former Joint Director K.T. Chikkanna and others were present.

Participants stage protest against Pejawar Seer's remark: Just after the session concluded, over 50 participants who also included several writers, raised slogans against the reported remarks by Pejawar Seer Vishwesha Teertha Swamiji made at Dharma Samsad in Udupi on Saturday that Dr. Ambedkar alone cannot be credited for scripting the Constitution as others too had contributed for it.

Accusing the Seer of thrusting Hindutva ideology on everyone, the protesters said that the Seer's remark was an insult not only to Dr. Ambedkar but to the Constitution as well.

Writers Dr. Meenakshi Bali, Ramzan Darga, Moodnakoodu Chinnaswamy and others took part.

Sahitya Sammelana turns into a platform for political issues

Mysuru, Nov. 27 (SBD&US)- Though the 83rd Kannada Sahitya Sammelana was held in city after a gap of 27 years, political issues figured prominently at the event questioning the rationale behind such a mega Literary Festival.

Though the three-day Sammelana featured seminars, poets meet, interactions and cultural programmes, the main stage at Maharaja's College Grounds witnessed many politically oriented speeches leaving the true Kannada literary buffs disappointed and left wondering about the sanctity of such Literary Festivals with colossal expenditure.

The political issues raised by the Sammelana President during the inaugural function went on till the valedictory yesterday making room for leaders of Congress, BJP and JD(S) to voice their feelings on the dais. The genuine literary buffs left perplexed after the Sammelana whether political weightage was essential or not during Literary Festivals.

CITU leader urges Rs.15,000 minimum wage for workers

S. Varalaksmi

Mysuru, Nov.27- Centre of Indian Trade Unions (CITU) leader S. Varalaksmi has made a strong plea for ensuring a minimum wage of Rs.15,000 per month for workers in the State. She was speaking at the session on 'Pro-people's Movements in Karnataka' held as part of the 83rd Akhila Bharata Kannada Sahitya Sammelana in city yesterday.

Presenting an overview of the condition of the labour class in the State in particular and the country in general, Varalakshmi said that there were 44 Labour Laws, none of which accorded protection to lakhs of workers in the State, thanks to the labour reforms that diluted the laws.

"We want to tell the Government through this Sammelana that no worker in the State should get wages below Rs. 15,000 per month in the State," she added.

She also made a strong plea for the proceedings in the Labour Court to be conducted in Kannada as a majority of the workers did not understand English.

Former Advocate General of Karnataka Ravivarma Kumar, in his address, said centralisation was a major threat to democracy and the Grassroots Movement was essential to ensure Social Justice.

Farmer leader Chamarasa Malipatil, referring to the Farmers' Movement in the State, said that it was essential to unite the farmers to help safeguard their interests.

He further said that there were discussions going on changing the name of KRRS (Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha) & Hasiru Sene and a final decision in this regard will be announced on Dec.21. The Raitha Sangha is also working hard towards making a political mark in the State, he added.

Activist R.N. Chandrashekar, who presented an overview of Kannada Movement in the State, recalled that Gokak Agitation, entry of thespian Dr. Rajkumar and Sarojini Mahishi Report on providing jobs to the locals were the turning points for the Movement.

Critic L.G. Meera, in her address, pointed out that though women constituted almost 50% of the population, they held less than 10% of the property.

Lamenting the gender inequality prevailing in the society, she said that the struggle for women's rights was also a facet of the Pro-people's Grassroots Movements.

INS condemns killing of journalist

Sudip

New Delhi, Nov.27- The President of Indian Newspaper Society (INS) Akila Urankar has condemned the murder of journalist Sudip Datta Bhaumik of Syandan Patrika on Nov. 21 near Agartala, while he was discharging his duties.

In a press release, Akila Urankar has stated that the killing of a defenceless journalist, allegedly by a member of the Police is a very serious matter and added that this was the second murder of a journalist in Tripura within two months which has given rise to great insecurity within the journalist fraternity and demanded the Tripura Government to ensure exemplary punishment to the guilty and also ensure that journalists be able to discharge their duties without fear of violence.

In a press release, Association President Suresh and General Secretary Sundar have stated that the demise of the senior journalist was a big loss to the city.

WORD OF THE DAY

Truepenny

Pronunciation: Troo-pen-ee.
Meaning: A trusty, honest fellow.
Example: One can see clearly what a true-penny our fellow scholar Jack is when it comes to work.
Origin: Truepenny entered English in the mid-1500s.

THE ODD WORD

Flatline

To die

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Making a scene

Meaning: Behaving in such a way that it disturbs the public; drawing undue attention to oneself by being dramatic.

Example: I know you're angry Dad, but there's no need to be making a scene right now, especially because it'll be super embarrassing!

Origin: This phrase possibly has a background in theatre, where dramatic scenes are performed on stage. Thus, if someone is being unruly and drawing unnecessary attention to themselves, it is likened to a scene in a theatrical performance. The acts on File Encyclopedia of Word and Phrase Origins mentions that Samuel Foote, a British playwright, wrote a play in the 1760s called The Liar. One of the characters from the play says: "We parted this moment. Such a scene!" The expression with its modern phrasing is found in a book from 1825, where it reads: "When the company reached the dining-room, each placed himself at table where he chose, and the master and mistress of the house easily found means, without making a scene, to induce the four mostdistinguished women in company to sit by them."'

ಕೋಟ್ಯಾಧಿಪತಿಯಾಗಿ !

ತಿಂಗಳಿಗೆ 4500 ರೂ. ಗಳಂತೆ ನಮಗೆ ತಿಳಿದಿರುವ 8% ನಂತೆ ಹೂಡಿದರೆ 20 ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಬಳಿಕ ನಮಗೆ ದೊರೆಯುವುದು ಕೇವಲ 25ಲಕ್ಷ ಮಾತ್ರ. ಅದೇ ಹಣವನ್ನು ಆಚ್ಛೇ ಸಮಯದಲ್ಲಿ 20% ಲಾಭ ಬರುವ ಷೇರುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ತೊಡಗಿಸಿದರೆ ದೊರೆಯುವುದು 1 ಕೋಟಿ !! ವ್ಯತ್ಯಾಸ 75 ಲಕ್ಷ. ಇದು ಕನಸೇ ಎನ್ನುವುದು ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ.

"ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿರುವ ಹಲವು ಉತ್ತಮ ಷೇರುಗಳು 15 ರಿಂದ 20 % ಲಾಭಾಂಶವನ್ನು ಕಳೆದ 5 ರಿಂದ 12 ವರ್ಷಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಕೊಡುತ್ತಲೇ ಬಂದಿವೆ. ಆದರಿಂದ ಇದು ಸತ್ಯ" ಎನುತ್ತಾರೆ ಆಂತರ್ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಖ್ಯಾತಿಯ ಡಾ.ಭರತ್ ಚಂದ್ರ.

ಮೈಸೂರಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಸೆಮಿನಾರ್:
ವಿಷಯ - ಸರಿಯಾದ ಷೇರುಗಳನ್ನು ಆರಿಸುವಿಕೆ, ಪೂರಕವಾದ ಜ್ಞಾನ, ಇಂಟರ್‌ನೆಟ್‌ನ ಬಳಕೆ, ಲಾಭಾಂಶವನ್ನು ಕಂಡುಹಿಡಿಯುವಿಕೆ, ಹಿಂದಿನ ದಿನಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಲಾಭ ಮಾಡಿದ ಕಂಪೆನಿಗಳ ಇತಿಹಾಸ.
ಷೇರು ಮಾರುಕಟ್ಟೆಗೆ ಹೊಸಬರಾಗಿದ್ದು, ಈಗ ಹಣ ಹೂಡುವವರ ಬಗೆಗೆ ಚಿಂತನೆ ನಡೆಸುತ್ತಿರುವ ಮತ್ತು ಈಗಾಗಲೇ ಷೇರು ಹೂಡಿಕೆದಾರರಾಗಿದ್ದು, ಇನ್ನು ಮುಂದೆ ವೈಜ್ಞಾನಿಕವಾಗಿ ಹಣ ಹೂಡಲು ಇಚ್ಛಿಸುವವರಿಗಾಗಿ ಈ ಸೆಮಿನಾರ್.
ಸೆಮಿನಾರ್: ನಾಳೆ ನವೆಂ. 28 (ಮಂಗಳ) ಮತ್ತು ನಾಡಿದ್ದು ನವೆಂ. 29 (ಬುಧ)
JLB ರಸ್ತೆಯ ರೋಟರಿ ಹಾಲ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ (MUDA ದ ಎದುರುಗಡೆ). ಸಂಜೆ 6.15 ಕ್ಕೆ ಎಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಸುಸ್ವಾಗತ. ಪ್ರವೇಶ ಉಚಿತ.
ಯಾವುದಾದರೊಂದು ಸೆಮಿನಾರ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸಿ.
